

THE FORGOTTEN

Music & Lyrics: M. Lenngren, Browsing Collection

Verse 1:

She is just a little girl
Who'll never make it in this world
Even if she really tries
He is just a mirthless man
Who really wants to hold her hand
The last few days before he dies

Abuse, violence, assaults
Don't get the chance to be adults
A life in fear they have to live
Hiding, shivering of pain
The trouble always will sustain
We have so much that we could give

Chorus:

Go, go on, shrug off, go on
See, make a note, have a thought, then forget it
It's nothing for you to concern about
Disregard it and it won't be happening
Is this how you give them a hand

Verse 2:

Shut your eyes and shut your ears
Before your face gets full of tears
Everything will be okay
Look away and don't you care
Just stay in your comfy chair
And make sure you will be safe

We are strong but oh, so weak
So afraid that we don't speak
But they can't handle this themselves
The only chance to make a move
Is when everyone approve
We can only blame ourselves

Verse 3:

She was just a little girl
Who didn't make it in this world
Even if she really tried
He was just a mirthless man
Who really wanted to hold her hand
The last few days before he died
